SOFTWARE LICENSE AGREEMENT AND WARRANTY.

Goya Pty Ltd (hereinafter "the Licensor"), offers license to install, use and distribute the enclosed software only in accordance with the terms set out in this license agreement. If you do not agree to the terms as set out herein, you should delete all copies promptly, and contact Goya Pty Ltd to request a refund.

1. Ownership of the Software: The Licensed software BaseElements (hereinafter "the Software") and the components, incorporated intellectual property and accompanying written materials are owned by the Licensor and are protected by Australian and International copyright laws. You own the media on which the Software is recorded, but the Licensor retains ownership of the Software itself.

2. In downloading, using, copying or distributing unregistered or 'demo' copies of the Software, you agree to be bound by all laws, regulations or requirements of countries, provinces or jurisdictions in which you import, use or re-export the Software, as well as all restrictions which apply to registered users as set out below.

3. Grant of License to use the Software: You are entitled to install, register and/or use the Software on one computer at a time for each current license registration you have purchased. You are entitled to make back-up copies of the Software and any data it contains.

4. XSLT Files: The Licensor grants you a nonexclusive, nontransferable license, subject to the restrictions in this License, to use, copy and modify the XSLT Files for your own internal use, for as long as your licence to BaseElements is valid. Notwithstanding the foregoing, you may not distribute all or a portion of the XSLT Files for use by others at any time. You can not also use the XSLT Files to develop other software programs other than for your own use. This licence expires at the end of the demo period or, for a full licence copy, when this licence expires. The XSLT files remain under the copyright of Goya Pty Ltd at all times.

5. Restrictions on Use: You may not reverse engineer, decompile, or disassemble the Software, except and only to the extent expressly permitted by applicable law. You may not modify, adapt, translate, rent, lease, loan or create derivative works based upon the software or any part thereof.

6. Transfer: You may not transfer or assign your rights under this licence to another party without the Licensor's written consent.

7. Licensor warrants that the Software will perform substantially in accordance with the accompanying written materials for a period of 120 days from the date of your receipt of the Software. Licensor disclaims all other warranties, either express or implied, including but not limited to implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, and non-infringement, with respect to the software and the accompanying written materials. This limited warranty gives you specific legal rights.

8. Jurisdiction: Licensor's entire liability and your exclusive remedy shall be, at Licensor's choice, either (a) return of the price paid or (b) replacement of the software that does not meet Licensor's limited warranty and which is returned to the Licensor with a copy of your receipt. Any replacement Software will be warranted for the remainder of the original warranty period or 30 days, whichever is longer.

9. This Limited Warranty is void if failure of the Software has resulted from modification, accident, abuse, or misapplication.

10. In no event will Licensor be liable to you for damages, including any loss of profits, lost savings, or other incidental or consequential damages arising out of your use or inability to use the software. Because some jurisdictions do not allow the exclusion or limitation of liability for consequential or incidental damages, the above limitation may not apply to you.

11. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Victoria, Australia. If you have any questions concerning this Agreement or wish to contact the Licensor for any reason, please write to: PO Box 327, Mt Waverley, VIC, 3149 Australia.
